TABERNACLE RENOVATION

Maintaining the spirit and feel of the original Tabernacle, with an updated, open-air design.

Improved and expanded seating

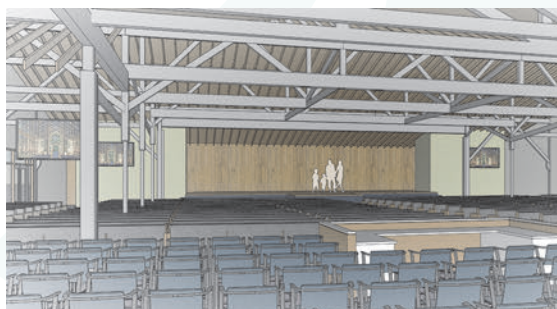

Full climate control for year-around usage

Flexible options for configuring the space for events

New bathrooms and Green Room for speakers, worship team, and concert musicians

Improved sight lines, state-of-the-art lighting & AV, and acoustic engineering

Roll-up glass door walls, big windows, brighter feel, and outdoor seating areas for improved outside-in viewing

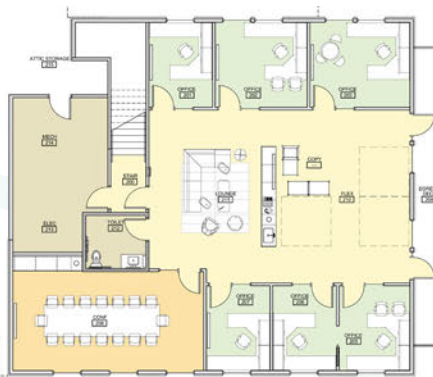

TEEN + OFFICE CENTER

MAIN LEVEL

UPPER LEVEL

A much-needed facility to separate middle and high school programs

Craft Room has a dedicated space but flexible for meetings in the retreat season

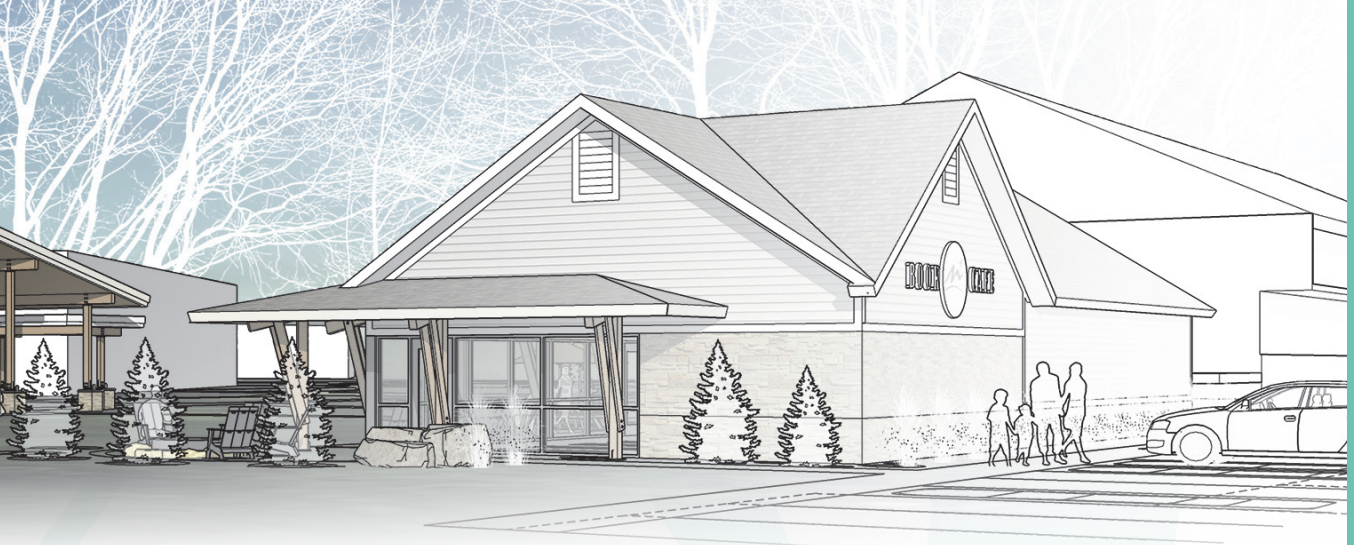

Game Room created for teens and retreat groups

Worship Center/meeting room for teens and retreat groups

Offices moved together for the leadership team (more Lodge rooms available)

Conference rooms added for meetings

COFFEE SHOP + BOOKSTORE

Near the parking area in front of campus for good access

More room for Maranatha merchandise, coffee house drinks, and confections

A wonderful social hub with people gathering areas both inside and outside

Indoor/outdoor seating with patios

DINING ROOM + KITCHEN EXPANSION

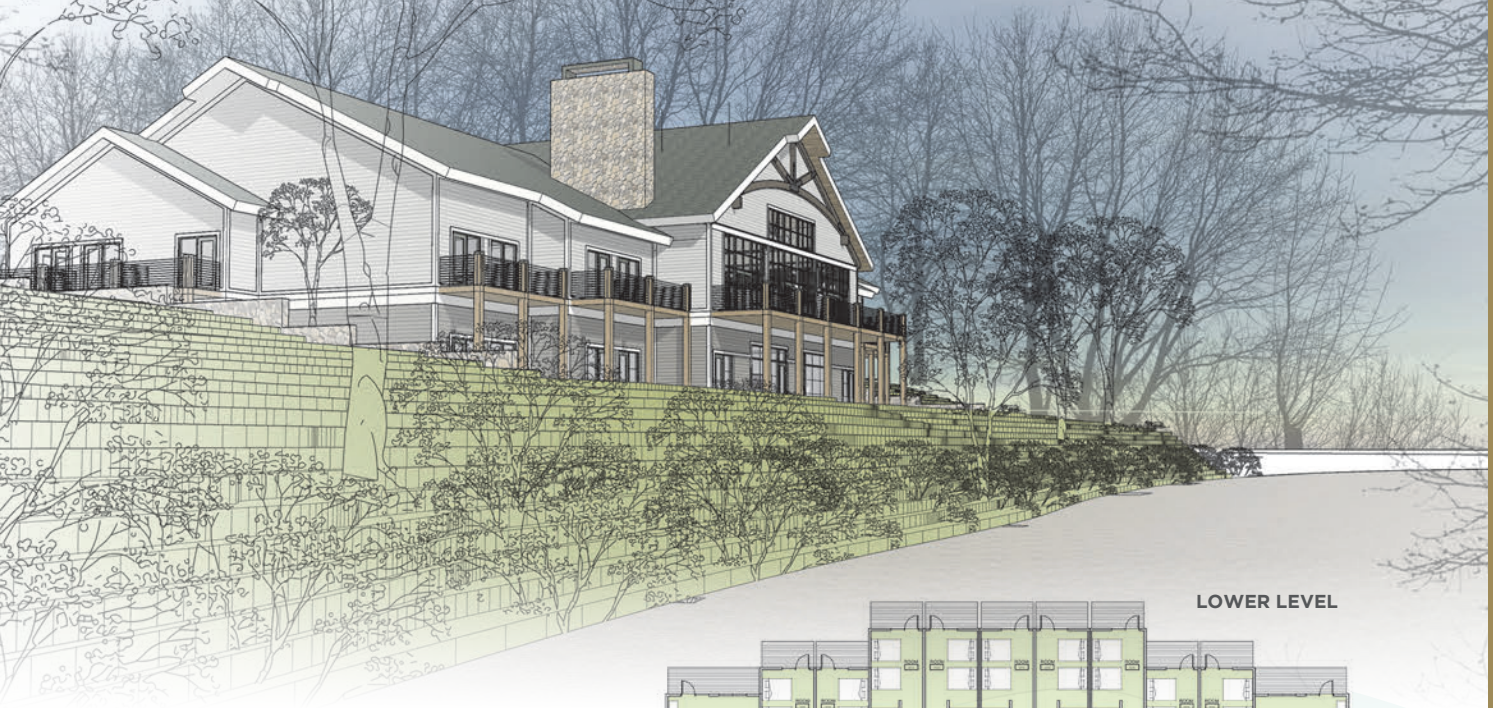

Expanded and improved use of existing food prep areas

Expanded outside seating on the south side of the dining room (heated if needed)

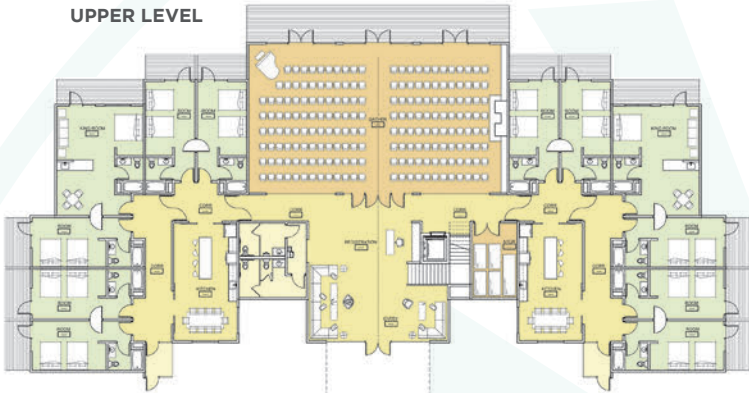

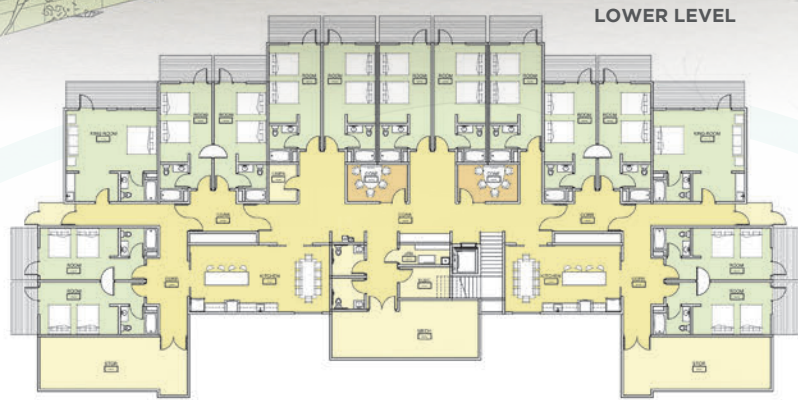

Better use and flow in main dining area for events/retreats

MULTI-FAMILY UNITS + STORAGE

CHANNEL LODGE

The long-time vision of Paul Johnson to expand Maranatha's service to families and Christian organizations

Added lodging space for families to be together and for small and large retreat groups

Large spaces near kitchen areas for families and smaller retreats to be together

Replaces lost housing (India) and provides additional rooms for growth

Located on the Channel near Cambodia and Founder's Cottages

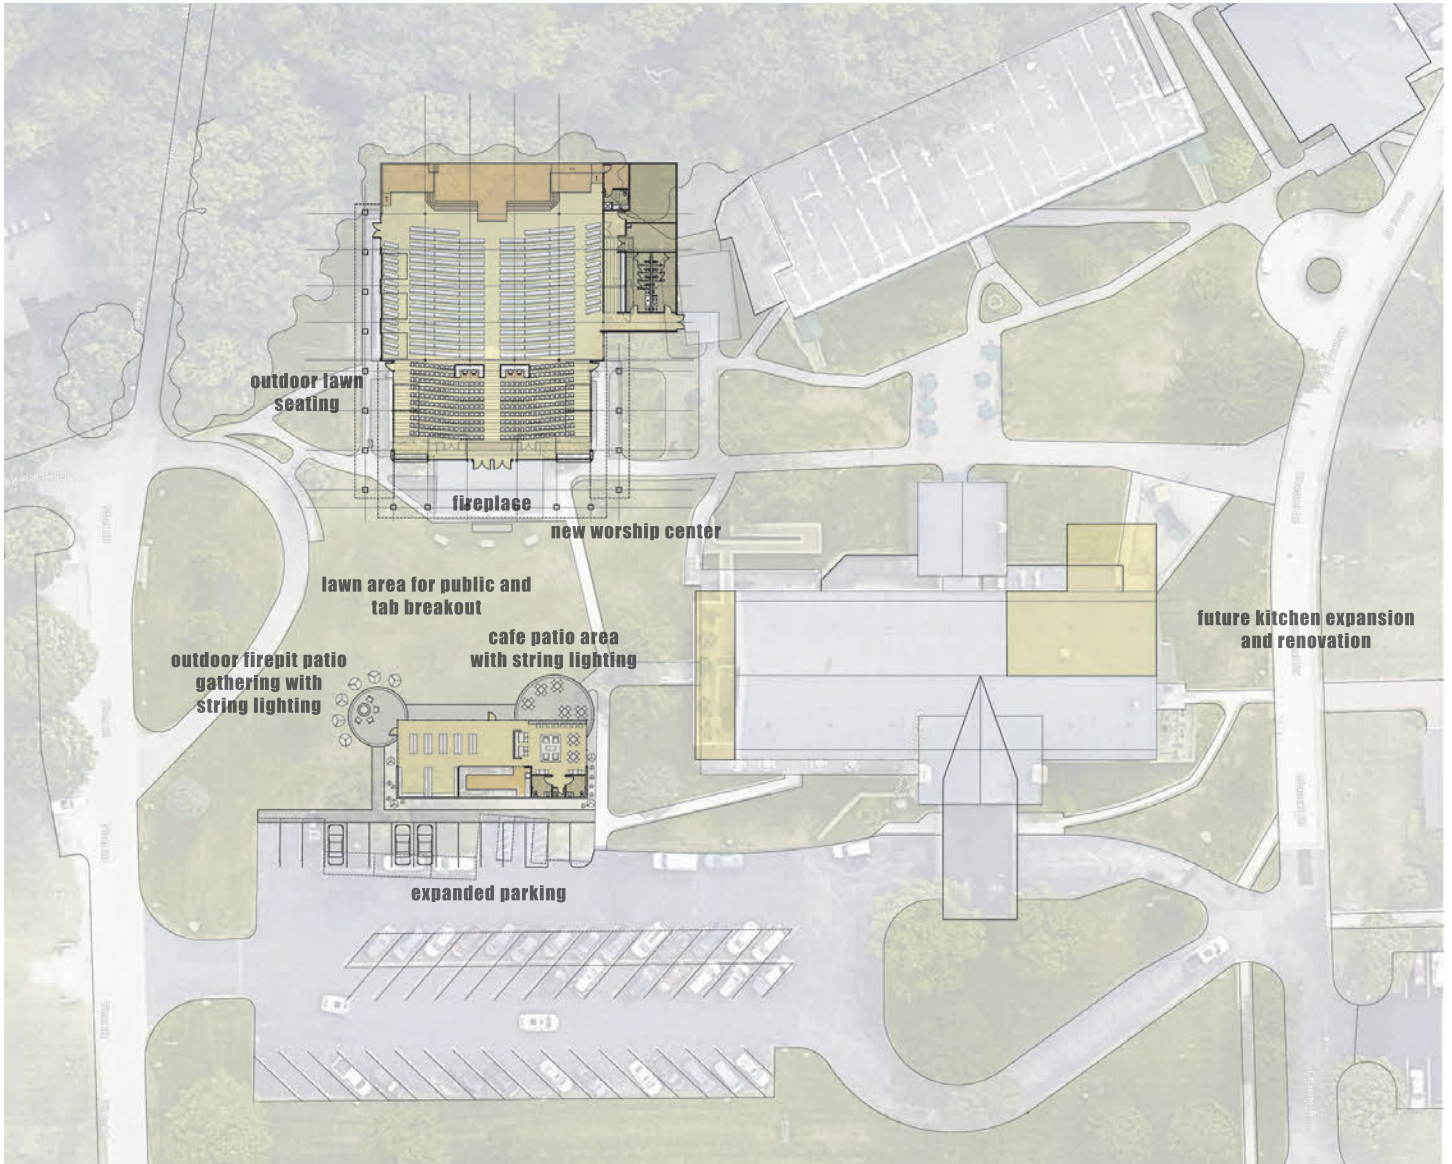

Large space for family gatherings, special events and retreats

Great views of the water from the rooms
